

St Michaels School

|                 |                                  |
|-----------------|----------------------------------|
| Client:         | Sandwell MBC                     |
| Location:       | Rowley Regis                     |
| Year:           | 2003                             |
| Total Value:    | £0.3m                            |
| Services Value: | £50k                             |
| Duties:         | Mechanical and Electrical Design |

Design Team:

|                        |                        |
|------------------------|------------------------|
| Architect:             | ETC Design             |
| Quantity Surveyor:     | Derek Evans & Partners |
| Main Contractor:       | Piper Construction     |
| Electrical Contractor: | Goodwin & Price        |
| Mechanical Contractor: | RHF Heating            |

Description of Project:

The project was to provide four additional teaching spaces in block annexed to the existing school.

The services within the block were to provide electric heating, toilet facilities and lighting and small power.